Matching

Match each character to their correct job title/duties, drawing a line from person to job duties.

| Person |
|-----------------|
| Lionel |
| Ryan |
| Bruce |
| Tsion Ben-Judah |
| Vicki |

| Job |
|---|
| Raised in a trailer park. Was the only one left behind in her family. |
| This Jewish scholar tries to teach the Jewish people that Christ is the messiah. |
| Comes from a religious family. He and his uncle are left behind. |
| Not raised religious. Has a hard time with God because his parents died during the Rapture. |
| Is a pastor who was left behind. Spends time teaching those remaining about Christ. |

Details

The rapture is described in detail, showing each of the four main character's experience. Choose a character and write three things they notice that lead them to believe the Rapture is responsible for the disappearances of their loved ones.

Problem and Solution

The Young Trib. Force faces many obstacles after the Rapture while waiting for Jesus' return. These events often begin with a problem or obstacle and end with a solution. Fill in the missing elements in the table below.

| Problem | Solution |
|--|---|
| Lionel's home is inhabited by thieves and murderers who are linked to his uncle Andre's devious past. | |
| | The Young Tribulation Force decides to publish a newspaper and smuggle it into their school, Nicholae High. |
| Ryan is captured after witnessing a kidnapping. | |
| | Jesus returns to Earth. |
| The Young Trib. Force, along with the police force, want to catch the bad men living in Lionel's home. | |
